

CONTRIBUTORS

Aneta BĄK-PITUCHA – PhD in the field of political sciences, research fellow at the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin. Her research interests focus on international relations, cooperation formats in the Central and Eastern European region, as well as national minorities and ethnic groups. Contact: anetabak@kul.lublin.pl.

Agnieszka BIELAWSKA – holder of postdoctoral degree in Political Science and Administration, Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism at Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland. Scholarship holder of the Kontaktstipendium des DAAD and the University of Potsdam. She studies the European policy of the German Christian Democrats, European integration and Polish-German relations. Author of numerous publications on these issues. Contact: agnieszka.bielawska@amu.edu.pl.

Piotr BOGDALSKI – doctor of law, PhD habil. in security sciences, Associate Professor at the Police Academy in Szczytno and University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, Poland. Expert of the Polish Accreditation Committee in the field of security sciences. He is a retired Police Colonel former rector of the Police Academy in Szczytno, Poland. His main scientific interests are public security and order, police educational process, law enforcement staff security, personal security. Author of over 100 publications in the fields above. Contact: piotr.bogdalski@uwm.edu.pl.

Ján DANČO – PhD student at Faculty of International Relations in University of Economics in Bratislava. His point of interests is the Middle East region, especially Greater Middle East countries such as Islamic Republic of Iran and Afghanistan. His previous papers deal with the topic of Iranian-Israeli relations, position of Iran in the international economic system and relations between Iran and Afghanistan under the rule of the Taliban. Currently he participates in the project of VEGA that is focused on game theory in international relations. Contact: jan.danco@euba.sk.

Łukasz DONAJ – in 2004, a doctoral degree in humanities within the field of political science was conferred on him (The Security Policy of Sovereign Ukraine at the same institute) and in 2014 – habilitation in humanities within the field of political science (The Conditions, Process, and Results of the Transformation in the Post-Soviet Area at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism at the AMU). From 2005 to 2009, he was Assistant Professor and Vice Dean for Full-Time Studies at the Faculty of International Studies and Diplomacy at the Lodz Academy of International Studies. Between 2009 and 2015, he was an Assistant Professor at the Department of International Relations of the AMU Faculty of Political Science and Journalism. From 2015 Professor of Adam Mickiewicz University; member of the Program Council of the International Relations course at the Adam Mick-iewicz University and member of the Education Council of the School of Social Sciences AMU. The author/editor of thirteen monographs and more than 190 academic articles and reviews (published in Polish, English, Russian, Ukrainian, and Kazakh); member of several editors of scientific journals in Poland and abroad. His research and teaching primarily focus on issues of security, Ukraine's internal and external situation, the freedom of the press in post-soviet countries, political communication, and issues of political forecasting. Contact: lukasz.donaj@amu.edu.pl.

Degefe Kebede GEMECHU – MA in Law, PhD in International Relations, Associate Professor, a political scientist at the Institute of Political Science, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn. He specializes in international relations, internal and international conflict resolution mainly in Africa. The phenomenon of fragile states, their domestic and international consequences are also in the focus of his interest. His other research interests include: failed states and international security; evolution of EU integration, institutions and legal system; the role of regional and international organizations in the process of international peace and security and contemporary state systems. He is the author of more than 50 research papers. Contact: gemechu.degefe@uwm.edu.pl.

Karol GEPPERT – PhD student in the Department of Security Studies at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland), Master's degree in National Security with a specialisation in Cybersecurity, postgraduate studies in the Military in the State Security System (Poznań School of Security). Academic teacher employed at the Institute of Security Sciences at the Hipolit Cegielski Academy of Applied Sciences in Gniezno. Former professional soldier with experience in the safety of military aircraft operations and the use of information systems in the logistics, operations and aircraft operations sectors. Completed courses in the use of SI LOGFAS at the NATO Communications and Information System School in Italy, in the use of NDSS at the NATO Support and Procurement Agency in Luxembourg, and courses on Specialised Technical Phraseology in English at the Defense Language Institute in the United States, and on Military Leadership at the Armed Force College in Switzerland. Research interests: aircraft operational safety in the military aviation sector and forensic and investigative psychology. Contact: kargep@st.amu.edu.pl.

Alex HALAPSI – Professor, Head of the Department of International Relations, Social Sciences and Humanities, Dnipropetrovsk State University of Internal Affairs. In 2008 he defended doctoral dissertation “Metaphysical Factors in Civilization's Dynamics”, which drafted post-non-classical metaphysics of history, revealed metaphysical factors of civilization development, considered the logic of historical process and the “laws of history”, analyzed the causes of civilization crisis and suggested ways to resolve them, discussed the problems of social forecasting, explored the metaphysical origins of globalization, defined risks and prospects for the future development of the Western civilization. Specialist in philosophy of history, deals with the problems of metaphysics, globalization, futurology, etc. Contact: prof.halapsis@gmail.com.

Bartosz HORDECKI – Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland); PhD habil. in political science and administration, PhD in law, MA in philosophy; member of the Executive Board of the Research Committee 50: Politics of Language (International Political Science Association); secretary of the Executive Board of the Polish Press Law Association; member of the Court of Appeal of the Centre for Research and European Education; his research interests concern political philosophy, political rhetoric, language policies and political cultures in Central and Eastern Europe, transformations of key concepts as well as methodological approaches in political and media studies. Contact: hordecki@amu.edu.pl.

Olha HORDIICHUK – Associate Professor of Philosophical and Historical Studies of Zhytomyr Polytechnic State University (Ukraine) and has an academic degree of PhD in Philosophy. Author of 76 scientific publications and monography “Mentality in the context of globalization” (2021). Latest article: “The Ideological and Ontological Causes of Russia’s War on Ukraine. West versus East, Tyranny versus Democracy” (2023). Contact: hordiichuk@ztu.edu.ua.

Waldemar JARCZEWSKI – police general, PhD, Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Political Sciences and Journalism at Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland, deals with the security of mass events and issues related to the fight against crime and crime prevention. During his 30-year professional career, he held key positions in the Polish police, occupying twice the post of the Deputy Chief Police Commander, supervising both the criminal and uniform branches. He also served as a liaison officer of the Police at the Polish Embassy in Ukraine (Kiev). The period of work in Ukraine (2007–2010) coincided with intensive preparations of both countries for the final tournament of Euro 2012. After returning to the Police Headquarters, he was entrusted with tasks related to preparing the Polish police to ensure the security of the tournament. Contact: waldemar.jarczewski@amu.edu.pl.

Ireneusz JAŻWIŃSKI – PhD habil. in economics, Associate Professor at University of Szczecin, Faculty of Economics, Finance and Management, author or co-author over 100 scientific publications, academic editor or co-editor of 15 scientific works, participant in the dozens of projects, former executive manager of research project financed by the Polish Ministry of Science and Higher Education and Polish National Science Centre, former head of Microeconomic Department at University of Szczecin, reviewer of 5 PhD theses, expert evaluating projects commissioned by public institutions, research fields: economics, socio-economic policy, economic security, regional policy, human capital. Contact: ijazwinski@wp.pl.

Łukasz JUREŃCZYK – PhD habil., Associate Professor at Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz, Poland. The Head of the Department of Security Policy at the Faculty of Political Sciences and Administration. The Editor-in-chief of the scientific journal “World of Ideas and Politics”. His research interests include international political-military relations, and security policy. Contact: lukaszjurenczyk@o2.pl.

Rafał KAMPROWSKI – PhD, Associate Professor at the Department of Security and Defence at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism of the Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland. He is the author of scientific articles and monographs in the areas of security in environmental threats, food security, security of raw materials in the field of rare earth metals. Contact: rafal.kamprowski@amu.edu.pl.

Jarosław KARDAŚ – PhD in political science and administration, graduate of political science and journalism and social communication at Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland. Currently, he is an Associate Professor in the Department of Non-European Political Studies at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism of the Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland. Didactician on security and international relations in the South and North Caucasus region and crisis management. Author of the monograph “The Russian Federation vis-à-vis North Caucasus terrorism”, and co-editor of three monographs “Crises of the modern world. Different approaches to global and regional problems”, “Challenges for the 21st century world. Selected Global and Local Crises” and “Unilateral and Multilateral Dimensions of States Health Policies in the Conditions of the Global SARS-CoV-2 Pandemic”. Contact: jaroslaw.kardas@amu.edu.pl.

Nataliia KHOMA – Lviv Polytechnic National University, Ukraine. Nataliia Khoma holds a ScD in Political Science, which she obtained from the Koretsky Institute of State and Law of the National Academy of Science of Ukraine. She works as a Professor at the Department of Political Sciences and International Relations, Lviv Polytechnic National University. She is the author of several scientific publications with impact factors in international and regional journals. Several encyclopedias on political science topics were published under her editorship. Her primary interest is the issues of the quality of democracy, the transformation of political regimes in the states of Central and Eastern Europe. In connection with the war that is taking place in the territory of Ukraine, an increasing research interest is shown in the topics related to threats to peace and security in their global dimension. Contact: nataliia.m.khoma@lpnu.ua.

Mykhaylo KOMARNYTSKYI – Associate Professor at the Department of International Relations and Diplomacy (since 2016) and the Director of the Center for American Studies at the Ivan Franko National University of Lviv (since December 2017). Mr. Komarnytskyi obtained as a Fulbright Scholar MA in International Relations from Maxwell School of Syracuse University, USA (2008), MA in International Relations (2006) and PhD in Political Science from Ivan Franko National University of Lviv (2010). Mykhaylo was Research Fellow at the Department of Political and Social Science (University of Bologna, Italy) within Erasmus Mundus Post-Doc Fellowship (2015–2016). He was a visiting scholar at the Institute of English and American Studies at the University of Gdańsk (Poland), Jagiellonian University (Poland), University of Zagreb (Croatia), Friedrich Schiller University Jena (Germany), University of Turku (Finland), University of Foggia (Italy), Salzburg University (Austria), University of Minho (Portugal). Since January 2020, Mykhaylo works as an Expert of the National Agency for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (NAQA) for accreditation of educational programs within the specialty 291 “International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies”. Mr. Komarnytskyi previous experience also included training in conflict management on creating peace zones at the Institute for Multi-Track Diplomacy (IMTD) in Washington D.C., and internship at the United Nations Office at Geneva. He is Promoting Tolerance Program Alumni of Friedrich Naumann Foundation (2014). Mykhaylo is also contributing as an editor-in-chief of the book series “Global Development” at Litopys Publishing House (Lviv, Ukraine). Contact: mikekomar@gmail.com.

Jerzy KONIECZNY – Professor, ecologist, political scientist and security sciences. In the years 1982–2010, a research and teaching employee at the Medical University of Karol Marcinkowski in Poznań; 2003–2006, University of Warmia and Mazury; 2002–2010 University of Szczecin; 2010–2012, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland. From 2012, head of the Department of Security Studies at the Faculty of Political Science and Journalism. He conducts research in the field of environmental protection in sudden and extraordinary threats; public health safety, rescue, disaster medicine, and service, inspection, and firefighting logistics; mass casualty and disaster management, risk management; crisis management; modern technologies for monitoring, imaging and modeling the security environment, ecology of the city. Contact: jerzy.konieczny@amu.edu.pl.

Mykola KOZLOVETS – PhD habil. (Philosophy), Professor of the Department of Philosophy and Political Science Zhytomyr Ivan Franko State University, Ukraine. He conducts deep research of globalization as a social phenomenon, national identity in the era of globalization, social aspects of migration processes, global and regional problems of sustainable development, socio-cultural foundations and prospects of modern civilization, problems of social changes and modernization of Ukrainian society, the essence and influence of the “Russian peace” ideology on the identity of Ukrainians. He is the author of monographs “The phenomenon of national identity: challenges of globalization” (2009); co-author of several books: “National Identity in Ukraine in the Conditions of Globalization” (2010); “The Phenomenon of National Identity in the Conditions of Globalization: Ukrainian Context” (2014); “The Political and Legal Mentality of Ukrainian Society in the Conditions of European Integration” (2019); author of more than 200 scientific articles. Head of the scientific school “Identity in the Globalized World”, and research work “Tolerance and the Modern World Order”; head of the Zhytomyr branch of the Sociological Association of Ukraine. Honored Worker of Education of Ukraine (2012). Full member (academician) of the Academy of Political and Legal Sciences of Ukraine (2023). Contact: mykola.kozlovets@ukr.net.

Adam KRZYMOWSKI – Professor, participated in the most crucial strategic processes of Poland’s foreign policy related to EU and NATO integration. He was a member of teams appointed by the Prime Minister of Poland, which developed strategies concerning these matters. From 1999 to 2008, Professor Krzymowski worked in the Office of the Committee for European Integration. From 2008 to 2011 in Poland’s Prime Minister’s Office as a Counsellor to the Prime Minister on foreign policy. From February 2011 to August 2015, he was the Ambassador of Poland in the UAE and represented his country at the International Renewable Energy Agency. During the second half of 2011, he was the European Union Representative in the UAE and participated in the EU-GCC Joint Council. 2011–2015, Professor Krzymowski headed Poland in many international fora, among others, on Afghanistan; Libya, and Syria, as well as at the meeting of the Proliferation Security Initiative; Countering Piracy. After his ambassador’s mission, he was conducting research at the Emirates Centre for Strategic Studies and Research. In early 2016, Professor Krzymowski assumed the post of Senior Advisor to the UAE Minister of State for International Cooperation responsible for Expo 2020 Dubai. As a Professor, he has been delivering lectures at various universities, including Sorbonne University, New York University in Abu Dhabi, and currently at Zayed University. Contact: ak7@vp.pl.

Yurii KURYLIUK – Head of the Administrative Jurisdiction Department, Administration of the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine; Doctor of Sciences in Law, Honored Lawyer of Ukraine, Professor of the Department of Theory and History of State and Law, National Academy of Management (Ukraine, Kyiv). Editor-in-Chief of the scientific journal “Migration & Law”. Scientific interests: criminological support of border security, administrative proceedings in the migration and border areas, crimes against national security and war crimes, integrated border management. Author of more than 130 research papers. Contact: kuryluk.yuri@gmail.com.

Hanna LAVRYNENKO – PhD in Political Science, Associate Professor at the Department of Political Science and Sociology at Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. Author of more than 50 scientific papers published in scientific journals of Ukraine, Poland, Serbia, Czech Republic, Romania, including 1 manual and 1 collective monograph. Scientific interests include transformational processes in post-communist countries, political identification, universalism of political processes, political technologies and political consulting. Contact: h.lavrynenko@kubg.edu.ua.

Agnieszka ŁUKASIK-TURECKA – Associate Professor, political scientist and media expert, Director of the Institute of Political Science and Public Administration of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin and plenipotentiary of the Rector of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin for the Team of Experts. Her scientific and research interests include the broadly understood sphere of political communication. Author, co-author and editor of ten monographs, author of 50 scientific articles. Member of the Polish Communication Association and the Polish Political Science Association. Editor-in-chief of the journal “Studies and Analyses of Political Science”. Contact: agnieszka.lukasik-turecka@kul.pl.

Robert MACIEJEWSKI – lawyer, from 1996 to 2008 worked as a public prosecutor, since 2009 has been a legal advisor, PhD of social sciences in the field of political science and administration (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland). Author of a number of scientific publications in the field of cybersecurity, cyberterrorism, security and critical infrastructure security and participant in many national and international scientific conferences. Contact: robertmaciejewski22@gmail.com.

Vakhtang MAISAIA – PhD in Politics and Master Degree in Public Administration. He is USIA Alumni and Chairman of analytical center: “The Georgian Institute for Geostrategic and Euro-Atlantic Integration Studies”. He is a member of “Independent Expert’s Club of Georgia”. In 2013–2015 he was a member of Public Investigation Council at the Public Defender’s Office of Georgia on Special Operation of 28 August 2012 at Lopota Gorge (2012–2014). He was Georgia’s President’s State Advisor on Caucasus Regional Security Affairs (1997–1999); Main Advisor to Chief of Military Strategic Intelligence Department of Ministry of Defence of Georgia (1999–2003); Councilor to Georgian Diplomatic Mission at NATO HQ (2004–2008). Currently he is Professor and Head of MA Program in “Global Politics and Security Studies” (Caucasus International University), joint academic project with Science and Technology Center in Ukraine (specialized agency of EU and UN on CBRN Risk Non-Proliferation). Contact: vakhtang.maisaia@ciu.edu.ge.

Martinas MALUŽINAS – PhD, an expert on political and electoral systems, political scientist, educator, science popularizer. Enthusiast of new technologies in democratic systems (e-voting). Author of the book The Evolution of the Political System of the First and Second Republics of Lithuania. From parliamentarism through authoritarian presidentialism to semi-presidentialism – political analysis (FNCE Publishing House, 2023). Contact: martinasmaluzinas@gmail.com.

Olena NEMYCH – PhD student at Kremenchuk Mykhailo Ostrohradskyi National University (Ukraine). Contact: o.nemych@gmail.com.

Volodymyr NIKIFORENKO – First Deputy Head of the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine; Doctor of Sciences in Law, PhD in Public Administration, Honored Lawyer of Ukraine, Associate Professor of the Department of Theory and History of State and Law, National Academy of Management (Ukraine, Kyiv). Scientific interests: integrated border management, border policy of the State, public administration of border security, prevention of smuggling and illegal migration, counter-intelligence, intelligence, and operation and search activities, strategic management. Author of more than 60 research papers. Contact: vlnikadpsu@ukr.net.

Maiia NIKOLAIEVA – Odesa I. I. Mechnikov National University, Ukraine. Maiia Nikolaieva is a PhD in Political Science, which she obtained at the National University “Odesa Law Academy”. She teaches as an assistant professor at the Department of Political Science, Odesa I. I. Mechnikov National University. At the same time, she is engaged in administration as the First Vice-Rector at Odesa I. I. Mechnikov National University. Her research interests include a wide range of issues related to international policy, institutional changes in the post-totalitarian space, analysis of modern approaches to international conflict resolution. She is the author of several scientific publications with impact factors in international and regional journals. Contact: nikolaieva.mayya@onu.edu.ua.

Bogdana NOSOVA – PhD, Associate Professor at the Department of Social Communications at the Educational and Scientific Institute of Journalism, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv; graduated from Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Institute of Journalism (BA in Journalism (Honors), MA in Journalism (Honours), PhD in Social Communications Sciences); member of the National Union of Journalists of Ukraine; author of a handbook “International Journalism: Modern Foreign Opinion Journalism”, a monograph “Ukraine – NATO: the Media Context”, more than 75 academic publications on media, communication and foreign policy issues; coordinator of international projects on journalism education and media studies in the frame Erasmus+ KA1 and KA2. Contact: bogdana.nosova@gmail.com.

Svitlana RADZIYEVSKA – Associate Professor, works at the Department for International Economic Relations of the National Academy of Management, Kyiv, Ukraine. She conducts her research on international economic integration, competitiveness of the national economy, international trade, global trends in the world economy development, regionalization of the world economy, formation of the transregional level of the world economy. She holds a PhD in Economics (in the field of world economy and international relations). She is the author of two monographs: Regionalization and globalization: interrelationships and prospects for non-confrontational development (2018), Globalization and regionalization in the world economy (2020) and author of many scientific articles. Contact: svitrad98@ukr.net.

Marcin STYSZYŃSKI – Associate Professor in the Department of Arabic and Islamic Studies at Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland, where he also obtained his Master's degree in 2000, and PhD in Arabic Rhetoric and Literature in 2005. His research is focused on religious and political propaganda and modern rhetoric in the Arab world. He also worked for the diplomatic service as Cultural Attaché at the Embassy of Poland in Cairo from 2009 to 2012, and then as Second Secretary, Vice-Consul at the Polish Embassy in Algeria from 2012 to 2014, and Consul of Poland at the Embassy of Poland in Riyadh from 2016 to 2018. Contact: marcin.styszynski@amu.edu.pl.

Ivan US – works in the National Institute for Strategic Studies (Kyiv, Ukraine). He conducts his research in the field of international trade and foreign economic relations of Ukraine. He holds a PhD in Economics (in the field of economic security) since 2020. He is the author or co-author of a number of scientific articles: “Ukraine’s foreign trade: responses to global challenges” (2021); “Regionalization of the world as the key to sustainable future” (2020); “Exports of Ukraine as a global challenge for its future” (2019); “Global Dominates of China’s Development” (2017); “Particular aspects of the WTO mechanisms application to protect the national economic interests of Ukraine” (2016), analytical reports and notes, addresses of the President of Ukraine. Since 2016 actively involved in covering mostly foreign economic issues on television and radio broadcasts in Ukrainian, English and Russian languages at Ukrainian and foreign (mostly Arabic) mass media. Contact: ivanusus@gmail.com.

Oksana VOYTYUK – PhD, Professor at the University of Białystok, Faculty of International Relations. Contact: oksana.voytyuk@gmail.com.